A Word from the Pastor

“Love is our true destiny. We do not find the meaning of life by ourselves alone - we find it with another.” — T. Merton

My dear brothers and sisters, today I depart from you with sadness and joy. The sadness comes from not seeing you every Sunday and everyday as I have these last five years, and the joy comes from knowing and sharing with this community God's Word and partaking of the Body of Christ. These things we share in common as part of our shared culture and heritage, and our very fiber of who we are as Catholics. I do look forward to my new assignment and new challenge, but I also feel apprehension as one normally would when taking on a new position. We cannot help but feel these things as we leave a comfortable life and enter into an unknown. We keep our trust in God and His plans for us and perhaps we may not like the direction God sets us on, we ultimately leave our plans aside and follow His path instead. ““Before I formed you in the womb, I knew you, before you were born, I set you apart”. Jer. 1:5

Life is fluid, it is always moving forward, and like a stream, our life continues in a free flowing and meandering fashion, but never stopping otherwise the stream stagnates and loses its vitality and life-giving energy. We must continue to grow, any other way our journey becomes stale and unrewarding. God challenges us every day to better understand ourselves and the relationship we share with Him and His creation, making us aware that life does not end, but continues in a new and very different way.

Our ultimate destiny, as Merton writes, is “love“. As we witness this in God's action by sacrificing His only Begotten Son for the purpose of reconciling our friendship with Him. This sacrifice God performed was done out of love for the love of us all. His sacrifice like those of a mother and father, is done for the sake of the other, it is done in the name of love, and as such that love is life giving. To sacrifice one's own happiness or pleasure in order to make those around them happy and safe is the ultimate sacrifice.

As we journey our separate ways and find new adventures, let us not forget our time together and the joys and love we share for our community. Let us remember that God, Our Father, desires us to be with Him and to live with others in love and common respect. Jesus did not request us to love one another, He did not suggest we love each other, He demanded it from all of us. Love is our destiny, and love is our only way to achieve the things Jesus wants of us. To live in peace, love and harmony is our ultimate destiny while still on this earth. God bless.

Thank you Father Leonard Marrujo

Assumption Parish Mission Statement

Assumption Parish is a culturally diverse and vibrant Catholic community which strives to grow as followers of Jesus Christ. We do this by accepting the challenge to build a Christ-centered community that draws on the wisdom of our seniors and the energy of our youth. We are committed to Catholic education at various levels. We are nurtured by inspired Liturgy, active and enriching faith formation programs, and inclusive family ministry, all of which enable us to share our gifts of time, talent, treasure and vision with our parish family and surrounding communities.
