June 6, 2021 Feast of the Holy Body and Blood of Christ

A Word from the Pastor

“Goodbyes are not forever, are not the end; it simply means I’ll miss you until we meet again.”

I am writing this last article to Assumption, and my first article to St. Anne’s, expressing the two very different emotions I am experiencing as I write this letter to both communities. My thoughts are with you, Assumption, as I close another chapter in my priestly life and thinking of all the wonderful memories, I have collected over these past five years. I think of the wonderful people I have met and the volunteers I have worked with on many projects and events. Many of you have contributed to the great success we all have shared and enjoyed. It saddens me that I am leaving you, but my thoughts and prayers will remain with you always.

Change is always, for me anyway, a difficult process. To change address and move to another place is difficult enough, but when it comes to leaving people who you have come to love is even harder to face. Our time together was and is important to me as you collectively have given me strength, vitality and friendship. I am especially grateful to those who have contributed their talents in finance, faith formation, and organizational expertise. I leave this parish in good hands with Fr. John as he will be a good shepherd and confessor to you. His youth I believe, will energize this community even more so and especially with our youth. It is my desire that our youth programs will flourish and come to fruition under the leadership of your next pastor.

As for St. Anne’s; I am excited to be your next pastor. I hope I can share my vision and spirituality with you by example, prayer and wisdom. These three things are based on my solid belief in God, the teachings of the church, and the wisdom that I have come to learn over the course of my priesthood. I have many ideas I would like to share with you in the coming years. I will give my first lecture in the fall on my love and admiration of Thomas Merton. This I will follow with our first Advent mission.

It is also my wish to get to know each of you and to remember your names as we learn of each other. Please know that my office door is opened at all times for you, and I am available whenever you need me. There are many changes coming to your parish in how we communicate the events that are being planned. My friend Michael Harmon is a web designer, and he will assist me in designing the parish webpage and getting it up by the Fall of this year. We are also planning and implementing other ways of communicating as well. All these things I hope will keep you informed with the news and events of your parish. I am ready and delighted to be your shepherd, confessor and pastor for many years to come. May God bless Assumption and St. Anne’s parish communities.
